TERMS & CONDITIONS

- Meal plans can always be upgraded, but students can only downgrade a meal plan prior to the end of each semester's drop/add period by 5pm. Payment on an upgrade must be made immediately.
- If you are a resident student living in the on-campus dorm, you must maintain at least a 10-Meal Plan for each semester you are living on campus.
- Requests for meal plan cancellations must be accompanied by documentation from the Florida Poly Registrar's Office showing you have officially withdrawn from the University. Upon receipt of required documentation, your meal plan will be cancelled, and you are entitled to a refund of the remaining value of the plan.
- Meal plan participants must submit payment in full upon signup for a meal plan, unless the meal plan is being placed on a student account. If placed on account, the payments must be made in full according to the payment schedule and in no event shall meal plan charges be unpaid at the end of the semester.

RULES & REGULATIONS

- Any declining balance purchased in the fall semester will carry forward to the end of the following spring semester.
- Meals on the block plans, 10-Meal Plan, or 14-Meal plan do not carry over from semester to semester.
- Operational dates of the food service venues vary according to venue locations and the academic calendar. Meals are not provided during University holidays and/or break periods. This information can be found at: www.flpoly.org/dining
- Payment methods accepted are cash, check, credit card, money order or student account. Pursuant to FPU-4.003 Special Fees, Fines and Charges, the University assesses a service charge in accordance with Florida Statutes section 832.07(1) for each unpaid check returned to the University.
